A Prayer for Our Parish

O God, You enlighten us with your charity,
 and enliven us with your grace;
 You guide us by your wisdom and give us
 hope for the future;
 You call us each by name.
 As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Church,
 You have brought us
 together for Holy Mass.
 May our prayers and praises
 be pleasing to You.
 Transform us by Your mercy,
 and make us one in Your love.
 Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel,
 and to serve our neighbors,
 so that one day we may share together
 the good things You promise to those who love You.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

Acts 4:8-12

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said: "Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

*Give praise to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures forever.*

*It is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in man; it is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in princes. ☩*

*I will thank you, for you have answered,
and you are my savior.*

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the Lord has this been done, a marvel in our eyes. ☩

Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

*We bless you from the house of the Lord,
I will thank you, for you have answered,
and you are my savior. Give praise to the Lord for he is good;
his mercy endures forever. ☩*

SECOND READING

*I John 3:1-2A reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

The Word of the Lord.Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING

John 24:35-48The Lord be with you.And with your spirit.A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father."

The Gospel of the Lord.Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgi Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Dear Friends:

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is traditionally called Good Shepherd Sunday. Today there will be baskets at the entrances for the "second collection" to support our seminarians. Bishop Bonnar established this special collection last year. I know the seminarians are dear to the people's heart. Please be generous in supporting this special collection.

The passage today is one that Jesus might have used when he was reminding his disciples that he had foretold his death and resurrection. He is the Good Shepherd who seeks out the lost and the lame--but who is also prepared to lay down his own life to save his flock. He is the one who will face the wolf--and the forces of evil--using his own life as a shield for his sheep. Because of his willingness to sacrifice his life on their behalf, the father ensures that he can be restored to life--and to draw all into one flock with one shepherd.

For many years, such a passage was used to maintain that everyone was destined to become part of the one flock--a Christian--or be lost. To suggest this today in a world where we are increasingly aware of the riches present in other faiths would be to deny the tenderness of the imagery used by Jesus.

This is not an exclusive flock of those who are saved. Nor does the shepherd demand that people belong to it. This is a flock of those who have heard the voice of the Shepherd and have responded. How they will respond depends on where they are and the culture and faith which they come. For some, the step to becoming a disciple of Jesus is one that will seem the only one to take--this will be their response to hearing his voice. They will bring them something of the richness of their heritage--and broaden the Church's understanding of what it means to be human.

For generations, the Church has been closely associated with European culture--and this has often been imposed on other races and culture as "Christianity". This is beginning to change as people throughout the world begin to look afresh at the culture in which they live and draw from its heritage.

People of faith are realising that God is much greater than one culture or one way of thinking. They are recognising that the whole world is holy ground on which the shepherd walked long before them. Here, the shepherd spoke to people in words that spoke to their souls--to their deepest dreamings. Silenced for generations, these are world the rest of the Church is beginning to hear--words of the Shepherd to his beloved flock.

- What does that mean to me?
- How do you feel about living in a multi-faith society?
- What insights on your own faith have you gained from someone belonging to another?

Make it a good week,

Father David

St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Funeral Mass - Pre-planning

Many people have asked if they can make "pre-arrangements" for their funeral liturgy. They want to alleviate this burden, during a difficult time, for their family by planning their own funeral. Many people have already started this process. If you are interested in doing so, several documents (Readings and Music List) and a set of instructions (prepared by Father Sheridan) will be e-mailed to you and you may return them at your leisure. After all the readings, hymns/songs are chosen, a document will be prepared containing all of this information in an organized fashion, then signed by the person making the arrangements, the priest and the organist/director of music, then filed away until it is needed. For more information, please e-mail or call, Bobby Sullivan at musicatthebasilica@gmail.com or 330-454-8044 x 201.
